

The Samuel R. “Sandy” Berger Memorial Fellowship

Administered by Institute for Global Cooperation and Understanding, Peking University

Program Administration

The Samuel R. “Sandy” Berger Memorial Fellowship provides each selected fellow $1,500 for one academic year. For the first inaugural award in 2020, four fellows will be selected. Two fellows will be selected for every subsequent year.

Eligibility and Requirements

- The Berger Fellowship is open to all Chinese undergraduate, graduate students, doctoral candidates and post-doctoral scholars at Peking University involved with the study and research in International Relations and American Studies.
- Fellowship recipients may use the funds for: i) field research, ii) dissertation completion, and iii) conference participation.
- If selected to receive the fellowship, each recipient will be required to submit a research paper on a topic of their choice in the area of International Relations as related to U.S.-China relations, American Studies, or American culture and society. The fellows will conduct research and write their papers during the year.
- The fellows will attend the U.S.-China Education Trust (USCET)’s Annual American Studies Network conference sponsored present their research.

Application Process

- Interested persons must submit their applications in electronic form no later than 17:00, 10th March 2020 to the following link: igcu@pku.edu.cn Any applications received after the deadline date will not be considered.
- Each applicant must provide the application form.
- Each applicant must write a short essay in English of no more than 500 words addressing the following areas: i) his or her area of study interests, ii) what does he or she plan to do with the fellowship funds, and iii) how he or she thinks the fellowship award will impact their academic career.